

Case Status Summary Reports Not Available At This Time

You may be familiar with the automated weekly case status summary report program. At this time it requires a number of modifications, and will not be available. As always, at such time any change in status is made on any case, you'll receive notification via email, fax or phone from your Business Placement Manager.

Thank you for your relationship with CPS, and for your business.