

Accident & Health Product Portfolio Changes

Effective November 17, 2017 the products listed below are being discontinued:

- AG Accident Choice Plus[®]
- Accident Expense Plus[®]
- EmergencyCare Plus[®]
- CriticalCare Plus[®]

Due to ongoing uncertainty in the healthcare marketplace, a challenging regulatory environment for supplementary health products and other business considerations, AIG has made the difficult decision to discontinue sales of its accidental injury and stand-alone critical illness products available through American General and United States Life Insurance Companies (AGL and USL).

Transition Rules

- The final day to submit new applications is Friday, November 17, 2017.
- All policies must be funded and in force no later than December 29, 2017.
- Pending applications not funded by December 29 will be closed and returned.

AGL's accidental death and dismemberment (AD&D) product, AG AccidentCare Direct Plus[®], is not affected by this announcement and continues to be available within the product portfolio.

We remain fully committed to delivering exceptional service to our existing policyholders and distribution partners. There are no changes to inforce policy coverage and benefits, nor are there any changes to customer service and claims contacts. Thank you for your business and continued support.

Thank you for your valuable distribution partnership; we greatly appreciate your business.
